Know the Law. Learn the Craft. Draft with Skill. Practise with Confidence.

A junior advocate is judged on drafts long before anyone hears them argue. And to be a successful advocate you need a lot more skills than just drafting.

This course is built around the documents you will actually be asked to produce in your first years — plaint, written statement, injunction application, counter-affidavit, evidence affidavit, execution petition, memorandum of appeal, writ petition — and the aspects you need to know regarding client management, arguments, research so that you can confidently establish your INDEPENDENT LEGAL PRACTICE.

Who this course is for

- Fresh law graduates joining a senior's chamber
- Junior advocates in their first three years of civil practice
- Final-year LLB students who want to start practice ready
- Advocates moving into civil work from another practice area

What you walk away with

- A working draft set you can adapt to your own briefs
- The judgment to pick the right suit, forum and provision
- Checklists for client interview, filing and limitation
- A certificate of completion from Kanoon Pandit

How the sessions run

LIVE, NOT RECORDED LECTURES

Every session is taught live on Zoom, 90 minutes, with questions taken through the class.

DRAFTING, NOT DICTATION

Sessions are built around live drafting on a real fact pattern, with model drafts and formats shared after class.

RECORDINGS FOR REVISION

Each session is recorded and stays in your account for the full course period, so a missed class is never a lost class.

QUIZZES AND CHECKLISTS

Short quizzes on limitation, Order VII Rule 11, set-off and counter-claim tell you where you still need work.

Taught in Hinglish

Teaching, discussion and doubt-clearing are in Hinglish. Drafts, formats and statutes stay in English, as they are filed.

A foundation weekend, then ten weeks

Sessions run from 5 September to 13 December 2026 — two live sessions every week, 90 minutes each.

Hinglish batch
